Area of Non-Interference

For maximum visual effect, the logo should have sufficient white space on all sides, and it must remain separate from all other graphic elements.

The lower case “e” serves as a guide. Allow a minimum of the height of the lowercase “e” as clear space around all four sides of the SkyWest logo. No type, bars, patterns or other competing elements should appear in this area. This area, referred to as the area of non-interference, will preserve the visual impact and legibility of the SkyWest logo.

In instances where space is limited, such as forms or advertisements, the clear space guide may not apply. In such cases, contact the SkyWest Airlines Manager – Marketing.

Area of Non-Interference

Minimum Reproduction

Do not re-size logos to a smaller size than one inch in width. Examples of minimum size are shown to the right.

Further size reduction of the printed or electronic logo will distort its appearance and is therefore prohibited.

The SkyWest Airlines logo, featuring the word "SkyWest" in a bold, italicized sans-serif font, with "AIRLINES" in a smaller, all-caps sans-serif font directly beneath it.

Size and Registered Trademark

The logo has two size variations: the standard logo and the large format logo, with the only difference being the size in proportion of the registered trademark (®).

Standard Logo

The Registered Trademark on the standard SkyWest logo has a height equal to that of the letters which spell the word "AIRLINES".

The standard logo is applied when the logo is smaller than four inches in width.

Large Format Logo

As seen in the example below, the large format logo has a registered trademark which is proportionately smaller. The trademark symbol has a height equal to half that of the letters which spell the word "AIRLINES" and is aligned with the bottom of the letters on the same line.

The large format logo is used when the logo is scaled to a size larger than four inches wide, such as in the printing of large posters, banners, billboards and on-screen presentations.

Filename Components

A standardized naming convention is used for the SkyWest logo filenames, including its contributing components:

- Company Name
- Logo Color
- Logo Size
- File Type

Company Name

Adding SkyWest to the filename designates SkyWest Ownership.

Logo Color

There are five color variations;

3c = Three-Color; Red, Blue, Black

2c = Two-Color; Blue and Black

b = Blue

k = Black

w = White

Large Format Logo

An additional component is added for the large format logo and is labeled as follows:

lg = Large format logo

File Type

The Logo is distributed in 3 formats;

.eps = Vector format; print applications

.jpg / .png = RGB; screen applications
