FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SkyWest Resumes Seasonal Flights to West Yellowstone Beginning May

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Montana, April 3, 2019 – SkyWest Airlines is pleased to resume jet service from Salt Lake City (SLC) to West Yellowstone (WYS) for an extended summer season, starting May 9 and continuing until Oct. 13. The seasonal Delta Connection service ensures visitors to Yellowstone National Park can enjoy quick, convenient flights and unmatched access to the world's first national park.

Customers may book their WYS flights today at www.delta.com or by calling Delta reservations at 800.221.1212.

"These convenient direct flights to the Yellowstone Airport give travelers more time to experience the beauty of the park," said Greg Atkin, SkyWest Airlines' managing director – Market Development. "Now is the perfect time to plan and book a Yellowstone vacation."

Round-trip jet service will be available May 9 until Oct. 13 onboard a 50-seat Canadair Regional Jet (CRJ200). These flight options ensure passengers are able to easily connect to hundreds of destinations around the world through Delta's global network in Salt Lake City.

"Yellowstone Airport is very excited for the newly extended season," says Jeff Kadlec, Airport Manager, Yellowstone Airport. "The extra weeks added to our existing air service will provide easier and more convenient access for both the community and our visitors. Yellowstone Airport is in fact the closest airport to America's first national park, only two miles from the west entrance. Fly directly to Yellowstone National Park via WYS!

SkyWest Airlines has proudly partnered with the West Yellowstone community since 1986 to provide quality air service. The airline is a leading CRJ200 operator and has been named the manufacturer's most reliable operator in North America five times.
